For this purpose, I shall first gin Generals Solling and Sulley for the high erime of murder before a court in which conscience pushing a shall get and the moral senties. for the wrongs which they had already endared. This will be plain to the court and to the jury when it is considered that the Indians owed no allegiance to our Government, except by treaty stipulations, which have ever been made and nomade only to suit the white man. And, moreover, the ludians, being always treated as a foreign people, and for the most part as encodes, felt that it was their interest, as well as their duty, to allie themselves with the South, which offered to sustain a more just

The Statue on the Capitol Dome. Pursuant to public notice the fifth ancrowning section of the calessal Statue of the Goddess of Freedom was raised to its lafty position on the Dome of the Capitol at twelve o'clock yesterday. A large number of persons had assembled in the park cast of the Capitol, and gave expression to patrictic excitations when he hag of the na-tion was heisted to the apex of the dome— a signal that the "crowning" had been suc-cessfully completed. And at this signal a salute of thirty-five gans was immediately given from the grounds adjacent to the Capitol in honor of the States in the Union, which was followed by slaves of artillery from the different forts which surround the Towards evening Cap-tains Berlase and Josling, Commander Wil-mot, and Capt. Brine, Royal Engineers, mot, and Capt. Brine, Royal Engineers, went further up the gulf in boats, and dis-covered three steamers of the Prince of Satsuma anchored close to the shore, in a bay about seven or eight miles from our anchorage, but quite out of sight. "During the 18th the Japanese officials came on loard several times with various excuses for delay in sending a reply to the demands, as well as to endeaver to induce Col.
